

Designated Emphasis in the Biology of Vector-Borne Diseases
(DEBVBD) presents

Annual DEBVBD Research Symposium

May 9, 2019
Alumni & Visitor Center, AGR Hall

3:10 Opening remarks: Sharon Lawler, Chair

3:15 Dr. Steve Lindow, Professor of Plant Pathology, UCB
“Detailed studies of vectorborne plant pathogens can lead to novel means of disease control: the case of Xylella fastidiosa in grape and citrus”

4:05 Graduate Student Poster Session

5:15 Dr. Jason Rasgon, Professor of Entomology and Disease Epidemiology, University of Pennsylvania
“Endosymbiotic control of mosquito-borne viruses: The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly”

6:05 Dinner (space limited, RSVP required)

Thank you to our donors!
Pacific-Southwest Center of Excellence in Vector-Borne Diseases
The Department of Entomology & Nematology
The Department of Plant Pathology
The Virginia Perry Wilson Endowment

RSVP: <https://forms.gle/zjTq2DTeahenGeTa6>